Media Report 18 November 2006 on Madagascar

Jubilee announces that it is aware of a media report alleging a possible coup could have occurred in Madagascar.

The Company has made stringent enquiries of its advisers, employees and consultants resident and operating in Madagascar, both in the regions and the capital Antananarivo. The Company has received unanimous assurances from the aforementioned that the capital and surrounding areas are peaceful and that business is as normal.

None of Jubilee's operations and activities in Madagascar have been affected in any way whatsoever.
